Next year will be the centenary of the end of World War 1 and Bretby Parish Council would like to mark this anniversary by arranging an event or events, to commemorate and celebrate the end of the war.

The Parish Council has some ideas, which include

- Naming and dedicating an identified area of land,
- A musical event, a poppy dance,

The list is not finite and at this stage are only ideas, we are inviting you to provide your ideas and suggestions on the above or to provide us with other suggestions which you would like to participate in. We are also looking for volunteers who will be prepared to work with a small group of people to organise these events.

Please let us have your comments. Comments can also be made via the website or email the Clerk at pc.clerking@aol.com
